Re-calibrating Possibilities in Bhutan

Talk by Dorji Wangchuk, London

Date: Thursday, November 14, 2013
Time: 19.00 – 20.30
Venue: Pädagogische Hochschule Zürich
Sihlhof, Lagerstrasse 5, Zürich (Room LAD 019)

Drawing on narratives and observations from the recently concluded Bhutan's second parliamentary elections, Dorji Wangchuk will discuss the changing expectations of the Bhutanese people and the lessons we have learnt in the last five years.

The talk in English will highlight major social, political and economic challenges that Bhutan currently faces, and the possibilities going forward.

---

Speaker Background:

Dorji Wangchuk works within Financial Services in London. He worked as an engineer for the Royal Government of Bhutan focusing on embedding standards and quality control within the construction industry.

Dorji Wangchuk has an MBA from the University of Cambridge.